Event Report- 'Nutritional Counseling in Slum Area'

Faculty Coordinator: Prof. D. P. More

Date: 05/02/2016

Participants: AIMS Staff Members and 23 students

Event Description:

Malnutrition of children is very crucial issue which leads to low immunity level and in severe cases death of children. AIMS staff members along with team of 23 students visited Malad village and interacted families residing the slum area. Parents were guided regarding possible hazards of malnutrition. Information was shared with families having children age below 5 year.

The dietary habits and food frequency for children's were discussed with the parents. Overall impact of this activity was positive as we received very good informal feedback from participants. This activity though planned for 1 day but due to overwhelming response from people the activity was extended for second day also.

Event Report- 'Computer Education to Rural Students'

Faculty Coordinator: Prof. D. P. More

Date: 12/08/2015

Participants: AIMS Staff Members and 20 students

Event Description:

Computer education is vital for all students. Students taking education in English medium schools generally have access to computers and laptops but rural students taking education in government schools are rarely get chance to learn the computer. To address this issue AIMS faculty members along with team of 20 students visited Z P School Gunwadi on 12th August, 2015.

The students of 5th to 7th class were gathered in a class room. All students and faculty members were carried their personal laptop with them. All students were divided in to smaller groups and we taught them the basic functioning of computers. Various parts like keyboard, mouse, buttons on keyboard etc. All students were given chance to handle the laptop on rotation basic to make them familiar with computers.

All students were happy to have very nice experience of learning the computers.
